

Faux Finishes & Special Effects

A weekend Adventure to Explore Possibilities

Andrea Warren is an artist and Golden Artist Colours & Merchandise agent who brings us not only Golden's fabulous products, but her extensive knowledge and know-how in their uses for which they were designed.

All of her workshops here at the KSOA have been extremely popular. Our feedback suggests the only room for improvement would be more time; time enough to explore the possibilities gleaned from the demonstrations ...

We Aim To Please

... but, I will need your help in planning this weekend workshop, if you are interested send me, Debbie [Program Director] artbydebbie@hotmail.com a message Subject Line: KSOA Workshop with your preferred dates [Sat/Sun]. Looking at early Sept. &/or October, if the numbers warrant it, we may offer both. The itinerary of this workshop will be similar to the others, and while may be subject to change will run something like this:

First Morning: FREE DEMO with a take-home package of sample products.

Day 1 & 2 cost TBA: First Afternoon, a hands-on session playing with the products demonstrated that morning. For returning artist's you may continue to 'play' or begin your own creations. Another Sample Products to take home or use that day!
[materials are all included for Day 1 only]

Day 2: Use your /sample products and bring your own supplies, i.e., canvases or work surfaces of your choice, brushes etc., and references if you so desire. You'll have Andrea's help to experiment and explore the possibilities.
