

Debbie Ottman-Smith

...has been teaching her popular "Anyone Can ..." series of drawing and painting classes here at the KSOA for 17 years now, along with workshops developed to inspire and further your studies, her bio:

Studied Fine Art in the 3 year Visual & Creative Arts program at St. Lawrence College Kingston. Graduated with honours as a painting major in 1978.

For more in-depth details on Debbie's Biography go to her website, www.artbydebbiestudio.com and click on 'About'

ACCOLADES (quotes from students and clients)

"The classes were for everyone so she was teaching students with the medium of their choice, oil, acrylic, watercolor and pastel. Her advice was most helpful because she passed on all the little tidbits she had gathered over years of experience." ...student

"Debbie Ottman-Smith is an incredibly gifted and intuitive artist and teacher. She has the ability to illustrate and explain both basic and advanced drawing and painting techniques in a manner that every student can understand and enjoy." ...student

"I always learn something! whenever I come to one of her workshops" ...student

"Very inspiring instructor ...an extremely supportive and positive energy" ...student

"It's like you looked inside my head and pulled it out onto your canvas." ...client

"...you've captured her better than the photograph did!"
...client for this painting >

"The Metamorphosis of Cassia" acrylic

'more information about my commissions on my website'

