

Natasha Jabre is a representational painter whose work in still life and portraiture submits a surreal revisioning of everyday life. She received her B.F.A. from Concordia University in Montreal, Canada and her M.F.A. from The University of Massachusetts in North Dartmouth, Massachusetts. Her artwork has recently been exhibited in Canada and the United States, as well as in a host of international locations including Berlin, Italy, Lebanon, and Spain. She currently resides in Kingston, Ontario. Natasha Jabre's recent series of tableaus incorporate images of toys, children, and childcare paraphernalia staged under colorful and dramatic light. Her goal is to express the splendor she sees in loved ones at the edges of daytime, morning or night, where twilight and fatigue impart their greatest influence.
